

Viking grave answers

Cnip grave

A Viking age grave from the Isle of Lewis contained several objects, including a pair of tortoise brooches, a string of glass beads, a sickle and a needle case.

Who was buried in the grave? What roles did they perform?

Answer: Woman and farmer

Kiloran Bay grave

A grave from Colonsay contained a large number of objects including a set of weights and scales, a silver dress pin, a sword, a spear, an axe and a horse.

Who was buried in the grave? What roles did they perform?

Answer: Warrior and trader

Westness grave

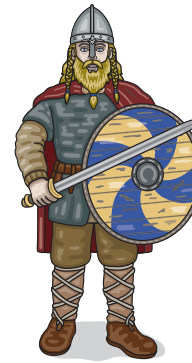

A Viking grave from Orkney contained objects including gaming pieces, a shield boss, a comb, and a sickle.

Who was buried in the grave? What roles did they perform?

Answer: Warrior and farmer

Trader

Warrior

Farmer

Woman

Child