

The Tomb

Ancient Egyptian Burial

Osiris' Challenges –
Answers

Statue of Osiris

He is wearing a crown and he's shown as mummified.

Chief of Police and his wife

They have their arms around each other, which shows that they loved and looked after each other.

Osiris names:

The princesses' tomb next door

He has a fierce face and is sticking out his tongue. He has his hands on his hips to show that he is ready to fight anything dangerous. He has a lion's mane and ears to show how ferocious he is.

Book of the Dead of Vizier Useramun

They are written vertically, from top to bottom, in columns.

Divine transformation

The remains of reuse

The tail

Changing burial practices

Mummy-case of the priest Nehemsumut 6 winged gods

Mummy-shroud of Aaemka

Anubis, the jackal god of mummification, and goddesses Isis and Nephthys, who brought Osiris back to life

Mummified woman

Funerary canopy of Montsuef

Winged sun disks and protective cobras wearing sun disks on their heads.

Funerary papyrus of Montsuef

Osiris:

Montsuef:

Funerary papyrus of Tanuat

The symbols aren't recognisable as pictures, like hieroglyphs are. It is cursive and written sketchily. The difference between the two is a bit like the difference between printing in a book and handwriting.