The Poppy: A Symbol of Remembrance

Free!

National War Museum

30 Mar 2018 – 27 Jan 2019

Examine the history of the poppy and its emergence as a symbol of remembrance. Through a variety of objects, photographs and interviews, the exhibition explores the manufacture of poppies in Scotland, the charitable work of the poppy appeal and recent debates about what some regard as the politicisation of the poppy as a symbol.

Timing flexible (45 mins)

Rip It Up: The Story of Scottish Pop

Free!

National Museum of Scotland

Until 25 Nov 2018

Discover the story of Scottish pop music as we take you on a musical journey from the 1950s to the present day. From the days of the dancehalls to the emergence of pop in an explosion of colour in the 60s, through the 70s and New Wave, Rip It Up will feature global stars and independent local heroes from pop's early days right up to today's outstanding newcomers.

10:30/12:30 (90 mins)

Robots

S1–S6

National Museum of Scotland

18 Jan–5 May 2019

This major exhibition tells the 500-year story of humanoid robots and what it means to be human. Set in five different periods and places, the exhibition explores the rich history, technology and culture of robots. Acting like mirrors for society, robots show how our hopes, dreams and fears have changed over the centuries. The exhibition features a unique collection of more than 100 robots, from the earliest automatons to robots from science fiction and modern-day research labs.
