

Money Challenge

for upper primary

Name: _____

Find out why banking has been important for over 400 years.

Go to Level 1 – Kingdom of the Scots

Find the coins from the reign of Mary Queen of Scots (next to her Tomb)

Designs on coins often mark special events.

Fill in the missing letters.

One of the coins marks Mary Queen of Scots'

m _ _ _ i _ g _ to Lord Darnley.

Another coin shows a reptile climbing a palm tree. This reptile has a shell and walks very slowly. What animal is it?

Imagine you work as a coin designer. Draw your design below.

Find the display of the coin hoard and jewellery (turn left through the doorway dated 1672, near the four cannons)

What are two differences between these coins and the coins we use today?

1 _____

2 _____

In the past there were no banks so some people hid their money.

Why do you think people put their money in a bank?

There are lots of job opportunities which involve working with money

Go to Level 3 – Scotland Transformed

Find The National Bank of Scotland Limited sign (opposite the Corliss Engine)

Find the display of banknotes

The first Scottish banknotes were made in 1695.

Can you find a banknote not in pounds?
What is it called instead?

How are these notes different to the ones we use today?

Find object number 22

What is it? What was it used for?

Now look at the newer bank notes on the opposite wall.

What was added to these notes to make it more difficult to make copies?

Fill in the missing letters.

 o o r

Go to Level 6 – Scotland: A Changing Nation

Find the section on finance

Find the red phone

Banks use advertising to attract new customers. Advertisements can be placed in newspapers, online and on television.

Pick the correct companies and draw arrows to match them with the objects.

Royal Bank of Scotland

Direct Line

Clydesdale Bank

Scottish Widows

Bank of Scotland

Imagine you work in a bank and you need to come up with an idea for an advertisement. Draw your idea below. Think about who would read your advert and how you would attract customers.

So now you know more about: Finance

If you enjoy being creative, like helping people or working with computers and numbers then you might want to think about a job in finance.

Find out more about finance and other jobs at www.myworldofwork.co.uk. Find out what subjects you might need to study at school, what skills you need, how many jobs there may be in the future and lots more.

