Mischievous Minifigure Hunt

Can you track down the 5 mischievous LEGO® minifigures who have stolen part of our logo?

Some mischievous LEGO® minifigures have stolen stacks of coloured bricks from the original LEGO® logo! Now they are all trying to escape using the planes in the Military Aviation Hangar.

Can you find where each LEGO® minifigure is hiding and write down which plane it is using to escape?

After you have written down all the planes take this sheet to the shop and receive a special sticker.
