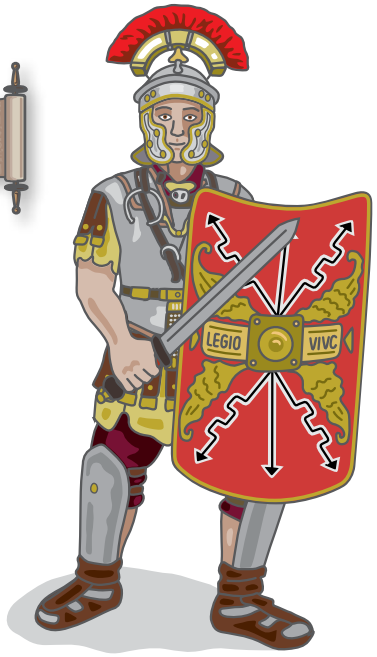
National Museums Scotland

Design your own Roman mosaic



Name: _____

The Romans made mosaics from tiny differently coloured stones or tiles which were arranged to make beautiful designs and patterns. You can find Roman mosaics in many museums. Often their colours have faded or worn away but when they were made they would have been bold and vibrant.

Create your own mosaic pattern by colouring in the tiles below.

Designed and illustrated by Dawson Creative.