

The Galloway Hoard: Viking-age Treasure

The story of the Galloway Hoard

Teachers' information

In 2014, something very special was found in Galloway, South West Scotland – a buried collection of treasure that had been hidden for over a thousand years. New stories are being uncovered about the people who made, used and buried these objects and how they ended up in Scotland.

With your class, watch our short animated film to discover more about the story of the Galloway Hoard. You can find it online at nms.ac.uk/GallowayHoardLearning

Activity 1: The Galloway Hoard matching quiz

The animated film features the following characters. Ask your class to look out for them and then complete the worksheet

Quiz Answers:

Silver bracelet (Egbert), Pectoral cross and chain (Abbess), Gold bird pin (Anglo-Saxon), Dirt balls (Christian pilgrim)

Activity 2: My story of the Galloway Hoard

Once your class has watched the film, use the worksheet to create their own story about the Galloway Hoard.

We'd love to see the stories told by your pupils. Share with us on Twitter @NMSEngage using the #NMSSchools

The Galloway Hoard: Viking-age Treasure

The Galloway Hoard matching quiz

Name: _____

Who owned these objects? Match the objects to the correct character.

The Galloway Hoard: Viking-age Treasure

My story of the Galloway Hoard

Name(s): _____

Use the grid below to illustrate your own story about the Galloway Hoard.