

The Galloway
Hoard: Viking-age
Treasure is now open on Level 3

Welcome

To help you explore the museum and make new discoveries, we have created trails – for families and adult visitors – that give a fresh perspective on the collections.

Pick up printed trails around the museum or visit nms.ac.uk/trails to download.

We continue to follow Scottish Government guidelines to make your visit safe and enjoyable. Please use this map and read our signage carefully during your visit.

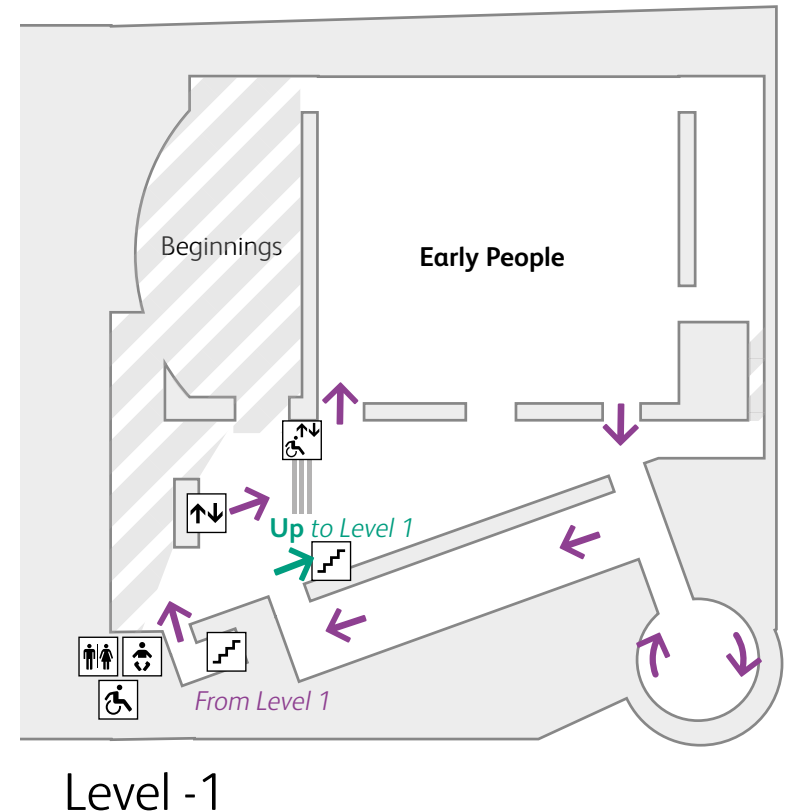

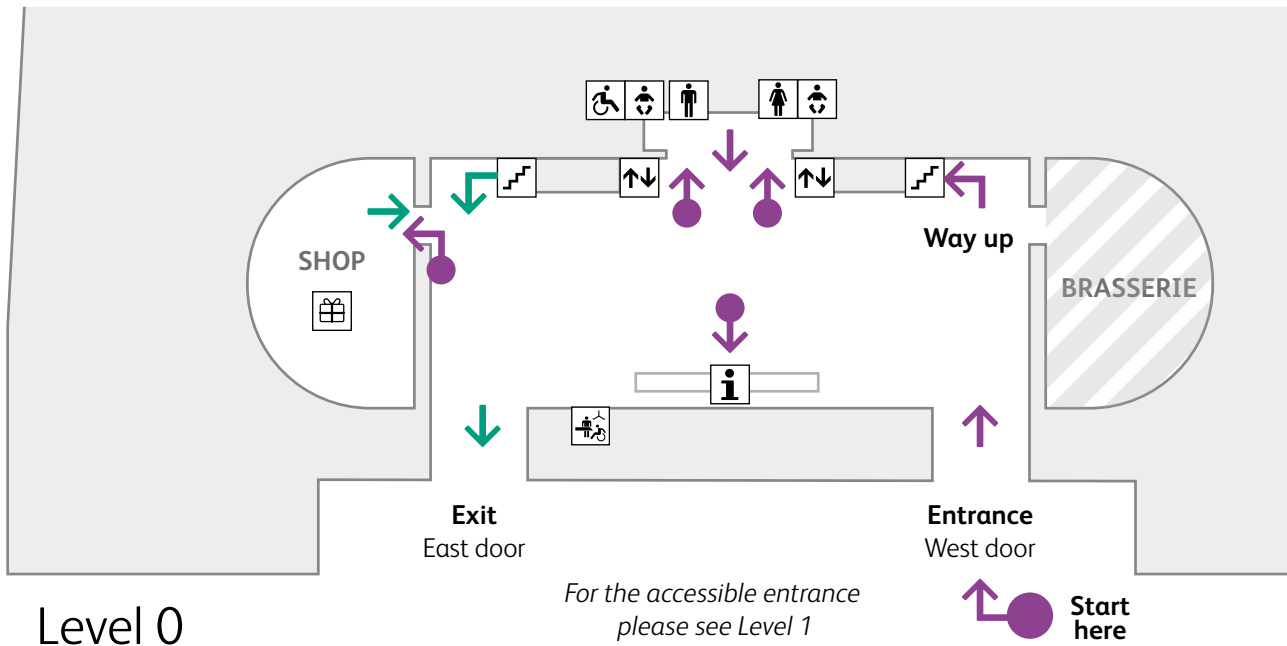

We want you to have a safe visit:

- Please keep your distance from others (1m)
- Use the hand sanitisers provided
- Wash your hands often
- Follow the directional signage
- Face coverings must be worn by visitors over 5 years old
- Please use the stairs if you are able, to keep the lifts free for visitors with buggies or access needs
- Please note card payments preferred
- Any questions? Ask the team and they will be delighted to help.

Key

| | | | | | | | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|
|  | Information desk |  | Toilet, accessible |  | Stairs |  | Temporarily closed |
|  | Toilet, female |  | Baby change |  | Lift Please use the stairs if able |  | Route |
|  | Toilet, male |  | Changing places toilet (undersized) |  | Wheelchair access to Early People, Level -1 |  | Way out |

Explore our Level 1 galleries taking in high fashion, cultural wonders from around the world, amazing animals and Scotland's stories.

Enjoy our museum in miniature 1 with our model made entirely from Lego® bricks on display in the Grand Gallery. Catch up with old favourites from the Lewis chess pieces 2 (Kingdom of the Scots) to the spectacular Millennium Clock 3 (Discoveries).

As some of our Science & Technology galleries are closed, we've moved Dolly the sheep 4, to a new temporary home in Animal World. Look out for her under the T. rex skeleton.

Catch our temporary display Scotland's Precious Seas (Exhibition Gallery 3) which showcases the beauty and diversity of Scotland's coastal waters and the many threats facing our marine environment.

- Key
- Toilet, unisex
 - Toilet, accessible
 - Baby change
 - Stairs
 - Lift Please use the stairs if able
 - Escalator
 - Pop-up café
 - Temporarily closed
 - Route
 - Accessible entrance
 - Way out
 - Accessible exit

Level 1

Tower Entrance
Accessible entrance and exit

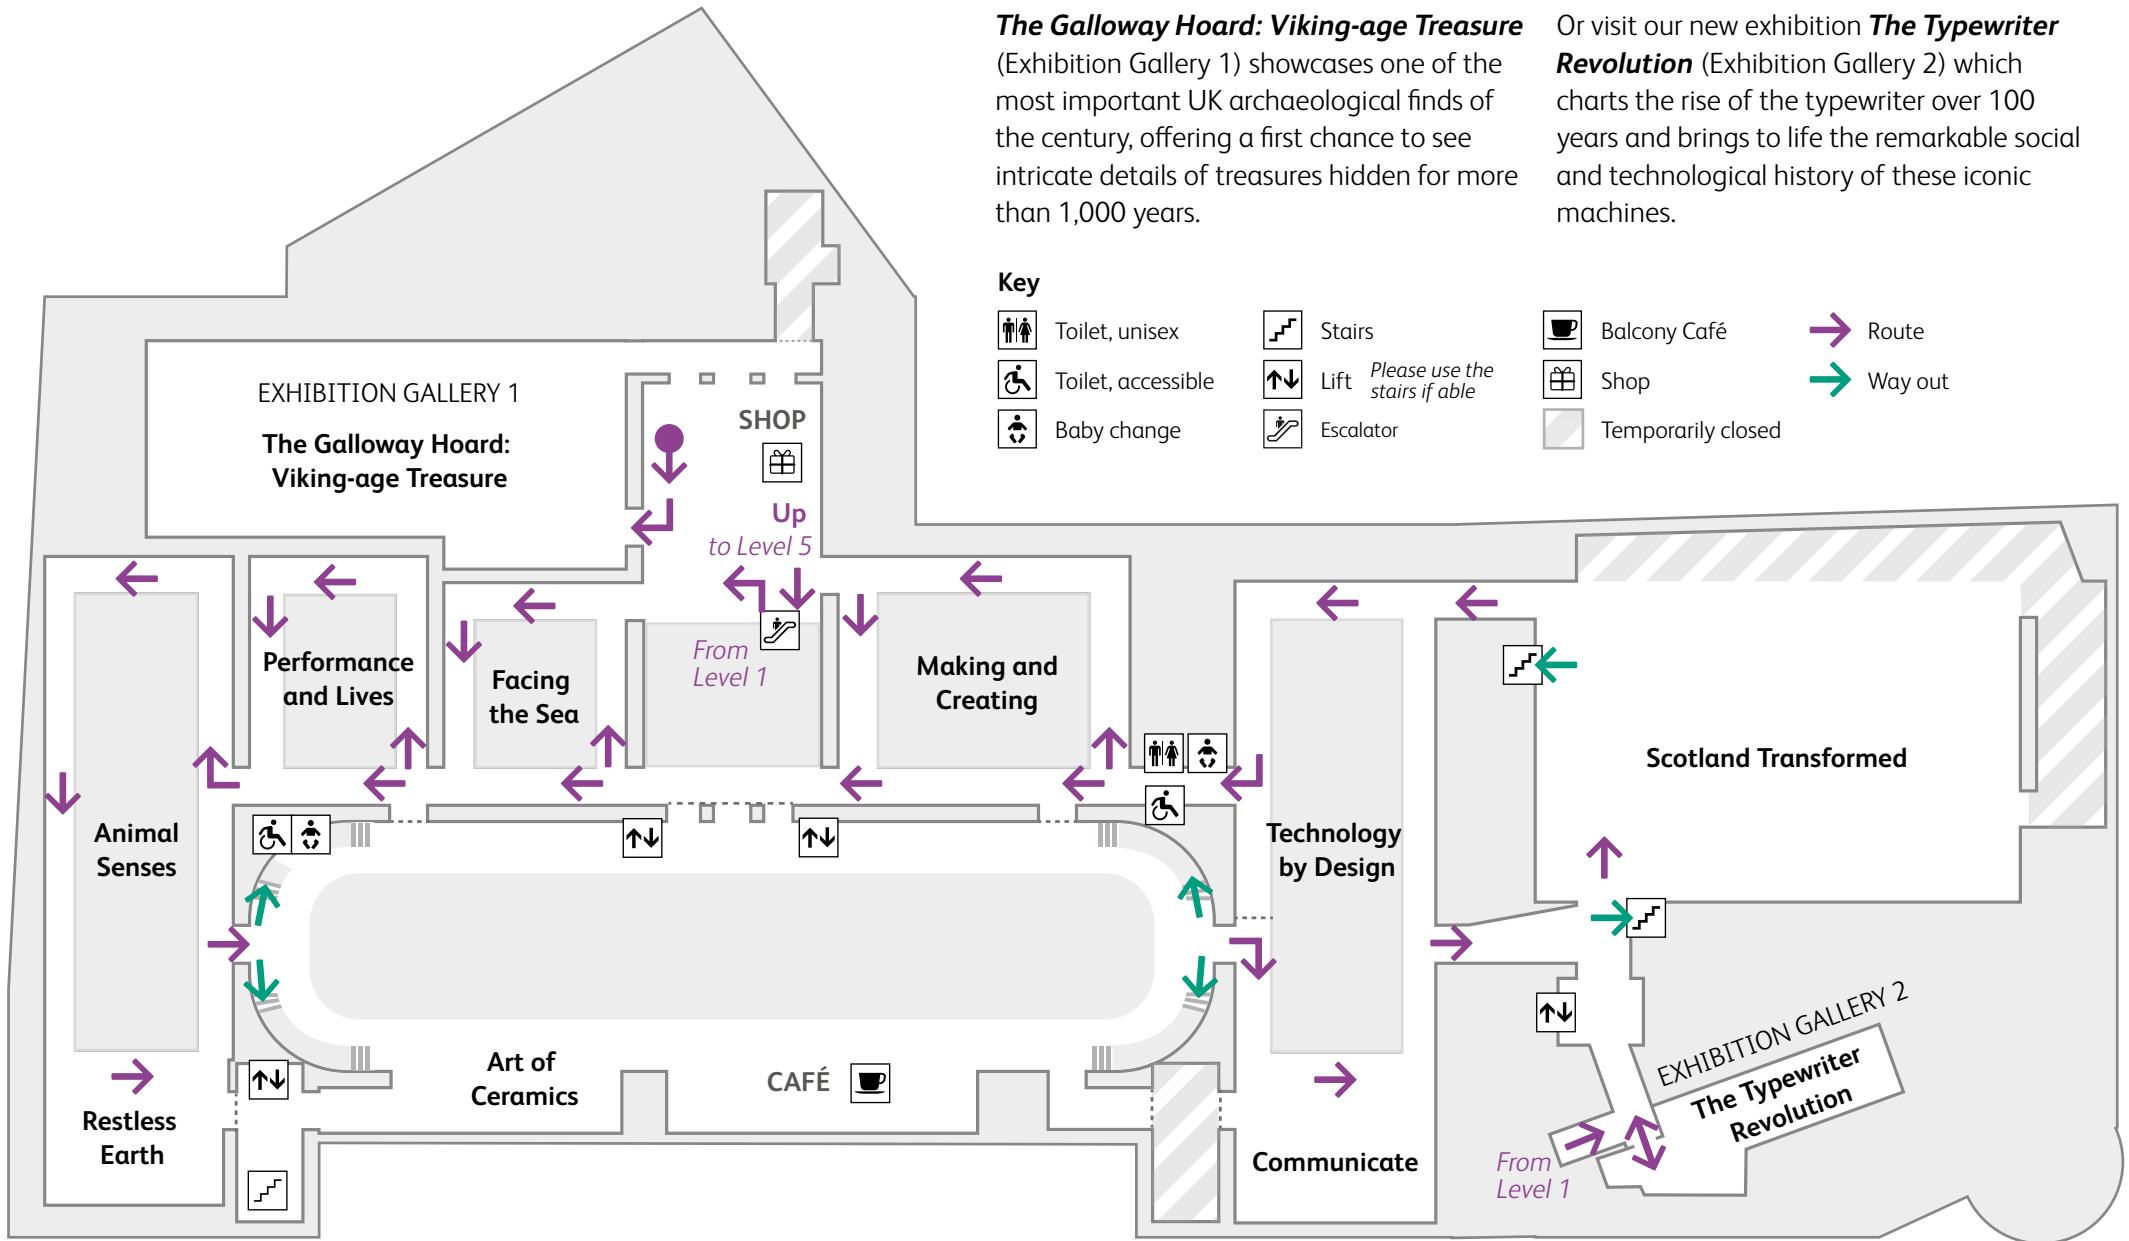

Make your way up to Level 3 for the Balcony Café and two free special exhibitions.

The Galloway Hoard: Viking-age Treasure (Exhibition Gallery 1) showcases one of the most important UK archaeological finds of the century, offering a first chance to see intricate details of treasures hidden for more than 1,000 years.

Or visit our new exhibition The Typewriter Revolution (Exhibition Gallery 2) which charts the rise of the typewriter over 100 years and brings to life the remarkable social and technological history of these iconic machines.

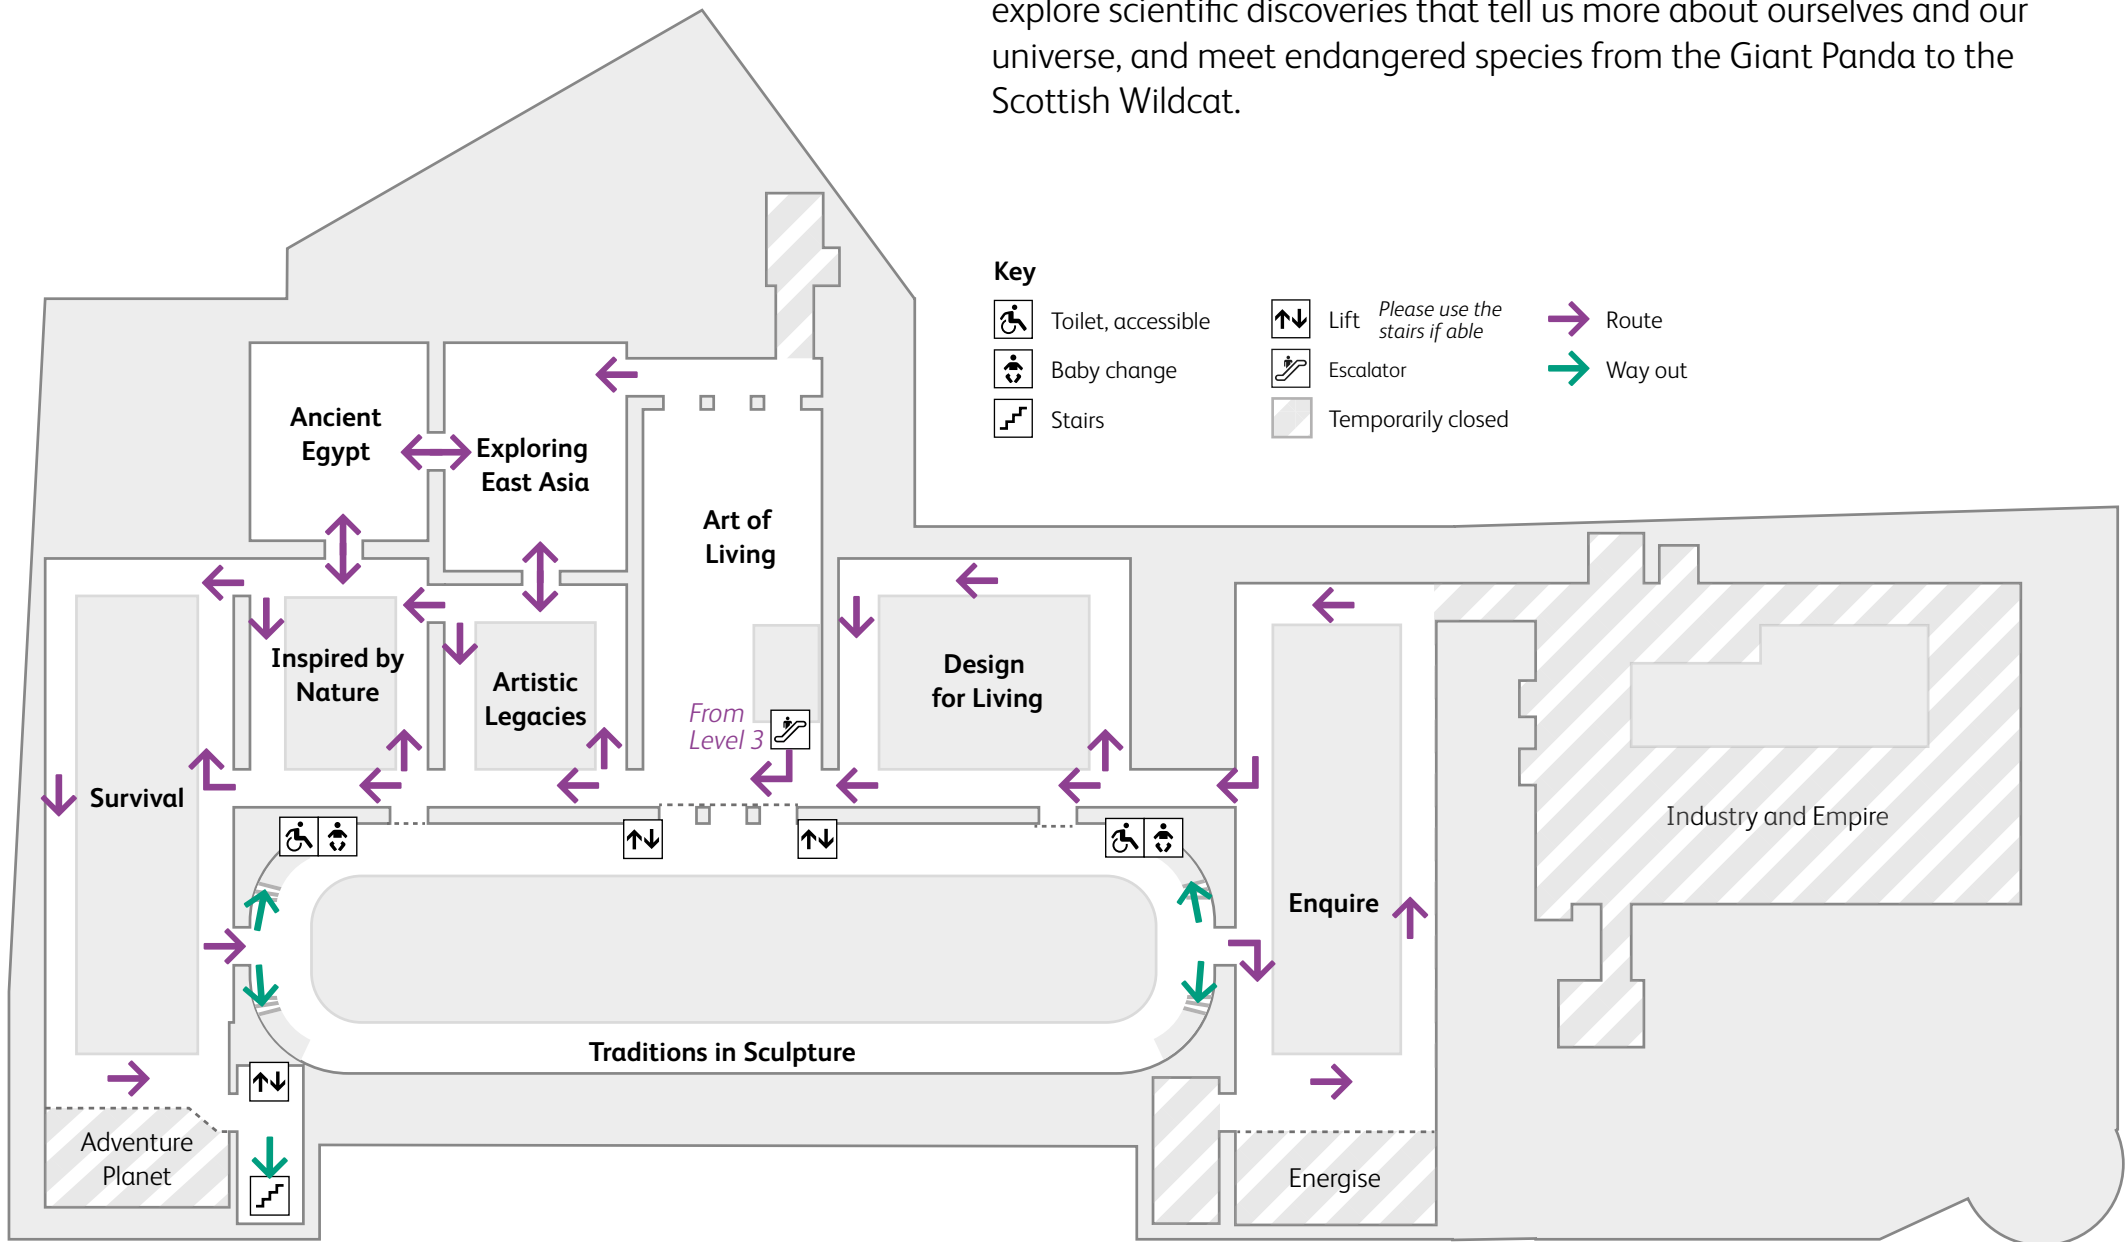

Key

- | | | | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  Toilet, unisex |  Stairs |  Balcony Café |  Route |
|  Toilet, accessible |  Lift Please use the stairs if able |  Shop |  Way out |
|  Baby change |  Escalator |  Temporarily closed | |

Level 3

On our top floor you can discover fascinating stories from ancient Egypt and East Asia, enjoy many of the museum's greatest works of art, explore scientific discoveries that tell us more about ourselves and our universe, and meet endangered species from the Giant Panda to the Scottish Wildcat.

Level 5