

National Museum of Rural Life

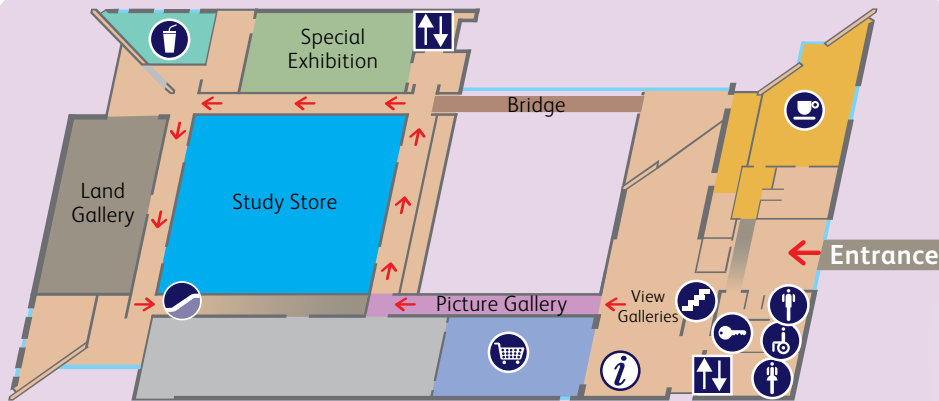

Explore the museum

Take a wander around our award-winning museum and see oil paintings, models and machinery. How have home life, farming and the landscape changed in 300 years? Uncover fascinating facts, see farming in action and join in the fun.

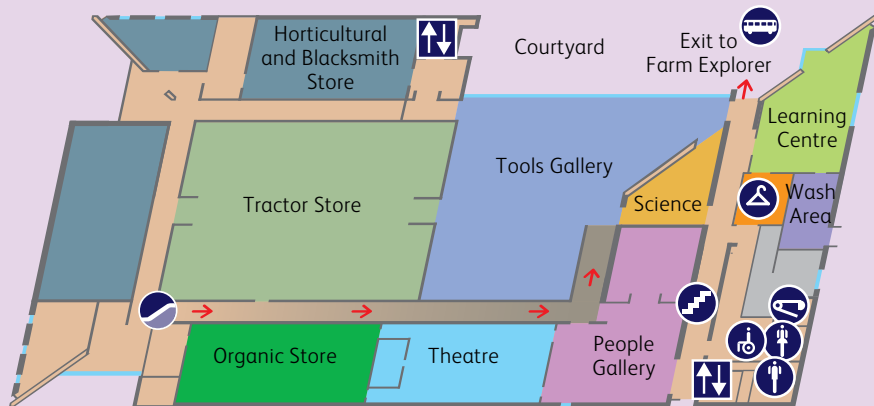

Down on the farm

Visit our Georgian farmhouse and working farm with many traditional 1950s farming methods. Meet our sheep, pigs, Highland cattle, Clydesdale horse and dairy cows, who get milked daily. Each season brings something new – lambing, sowing, harvesting, hay-making and special events.

Get on board

Take a seat in our Farm Explorer and travel from the museum building to the farmhouse, passing friendly wildlife along the way. Tickets are free from the Information Desk.

Keep it clean

Please remember that what is healthy in animals may be harmful to humans. It is important to use the hand-washing facilities provided after visiting areas with livestock. Pregnant women should avoid contact with ewes and lambs.

Welcome

Take in the sights, sounds and smells as you explore Wester Kittochside Farm. In our award-winning museum building discover what life was like for country people in the past and how this has shaped Scotland's countryside.

Feeling peckish?

Enjoy freshly prepared food, hot and cold snacks, teas, coffees and delicious home baking in our countryside café.
